This concert brings together select area music groups to give a rousing send-off for one of our longtime colleagues. Harry Z Davis, a local troubadour, is leaving Michigan in the fall. Harry and others share this moment to recap favorite music of the Renaissance and Baroque periods. Come and hear "hits" by composers Michael Praetorius, Anthony Holborne, Giovanni Gastoldi and others, played on replica instruments. The groups will play separately and then combine for a Renaissance "big band," numbering a dozen or more players.
