

A Little Knight Music

The Tale of Finding Common Ground

Summer Reading Program and
Children's Program for Libraries, Schools and Community Centers

Follow the adventures of a would-be knight as he searches for his own dragon. Anne & Rob Burns, the duo A Reasonable Facsimile, assume the characters of Tom Shortcut and his sidekick, Fawlter, who learn what it means to be a knight. The audience joins Tom and Fawlter in Renaissance songs about knights and dragons.

Anne and Rob present "A Little Knight Music," one of their most commended shows for young people. The personalities in the story transcend cultural and even species differences, starting as natural enemies but learning to appreciate each others' differences. The story seems quite fitting for 2017 Summer Reading Program theme, "Build a Better World."

2017
Summer Reading Program
"BUILD A BETTER WORLD"
Tie-in

Anne & Rob Burns each received a Bachelor of Arts degree with a concentration in Early Music from Oakland University. They specialize in the music of the Renaissance and the Colonial era as the duo A Reasonable Facsimile. They have received wide acclaim for their unique school and library programs.
